The Newsletter of the Department of Music

On Sunday, October 15, the Department of Music will present a special concert to kick off our celebration of 50 years of membership in the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM). NASM is the accrediting body for music programs across North America, and Georgia Southern College was granted membership on November 24, 1967.

The concert will feature performances by the Georgia Southern Symphony, Symphonic Wind Ensemble, Jazz Ensemble, and Southern Chorale, as well the Percussion Ensemble, Trombone Ensemble, Southern Gentlemen, Southern Saxophones, Magnolia String Quartet, and Eagle Brass Quintet.

The concert starts at 7:30 pm and is free and open to the public.

Sunday 22 October 2 pm – Carter Recital Hall

The Southern Quartet will welcome the University of Central Florida Saxophone Quartet to their studio recital on October 22 at 2 pm. The students met during the Southeastern Saxophone Symposium at the University of Florida last year and were eager to find an opportunity to collaborate. Their teachers, Dr. Carolyn Bryan and Dr. George Weremchuk, have been chamber ensemble partners for more than thirty years since they were graduate students at Indiana University. Dr. Bryan and Dr. Weremchuk will join the students to perform of Gabrieli's Canzon XIV for double quintet, each quartet will present its own works, and the two quartets will combine for Joel Love's Three Pieces; Southern Saxophones will also play Georgia Southern Overture which was written for them by student Matthew Brown. Please join us and our guests for an afternoon of exciting saxophone music!
